

THEN & NOW:

Searching for Atonement in the Face of Crimes Against Humanity

Whenever authoritarian forces convince a population that they are better and more deserving than an ethnic or religious minority the temptation to brutalize, demoralize and genocide that people can take hold. On this day of atonement, Yom Kippur, we will seek to draw comparisons between the crimes against humanity during the Holocaust and the genocide of the Palestinian people. We hope you will join us in good faith to find peace & understanding. May love of humanity unite us all.

Sunday, September 20, 2026 at 10:30am

Petersham Unitarian Universalist Church

1 Common Street, Petersham MA 01366